The extent of Government land which it passes is 13 acres 8 31 guntas and that of occupied land 1 acre and 21 guntas.

The occupants of the 3 occupied lands through which the road runs have agreed to give up the land required for the road, and do not require any compensation as they will also be benefitted by the opening of the proposed road. The Khatedar of the 4th No: is the applicant himself.

The road is reported to be useful both to the applicant, and the onlying villagers.

The villagers have no objection whatever.

The applicant Mr. Tirumalachar has agreed to throw open the road for public use and has also consented to pay Rs 3-8-0 being the estimated value of the trees to be cut for making it, fixed by the Panchayetidars.

Gomal statements with necessary particulars accompany.
